My dear lady.

I am glad to hear from you & to know that you have written to go to Florida to visit Mr. Carnegie's family.
I am sure you will enjoy the visit & find them very nice & kind. I hope it will serve as a good introduction to the rest of people in America.

I have not heard any now from Liverpool except a mile from the chairman to say it - with be all right.

The photograph is a little less perhaps but otherwise it is excellent. I am afraid I cannot go to the Royal Society of British Artists since you are not a member & the elections are open for members only. I am very sorry that there is a law to that effect.

but why not send it to the society of portrait painters?

My uncle Joe will have examined the matter which is my unsettled I hope to see him in Oct & if you are in Town will you come to see it. I look forward to Corbitt have been writing for a studio. (that reminded me. you can get everything in the way of materials thin canvas colours &c &c.

With kind regards to Mr. Hazle & family I am sincerely
Yours
