

Edel Steinhilber

April 6. 13.

Adeline Girl - Requiem Paris

Memo

Dear Monsieur de Lánglo

I was so delighted to hear from Mother
that you will paint her at the end of May.

It is such a joy to me that I have at last persuaded her to sit for the portrait, which I have for so long been wanting to possess.

MY DEAR I have asked her to beg you to let me know what I should be indebted for The sketch of her head on cardboard, the same size as mine.
She told me the answer
was 10,000! — Alas!
I cannot run to That.
but do tell me ^{really} for That I may see my way with my new little budget!
I feel it is only you
who could preserve for me what I love in my Mother's beautiful face.

With love to Mr. DeLay's (a the "new baby", ~~when~~ I hear he is lovely!) whom I hope to see in London
som. Yours very sincerely

Gene Vernon Harcourt