My dear Mr. Laszlo.

There is a charming Hungarian lady who has been working with me at music for some weeks.

She & her husband & 2 little girls are 'la famille' - I think she is a artist such as we rarely see in these clinics - perhaps my Irish nature responds to her Hungarian - !

today talking to her. I extracted from her some information as to her family, which I made her write on a piece of paper. which I enclose. she wrote in Hungarian which Mr. Laszlo can read! -

There is a history of a second marriage with a poor, & evidently rather useless son.

of men - She was originally a singer in Grand Opera -

I made a good marriage - but the money her husband left her ^{she had} was somehow got hold of by some of the family - a sort of 'riched uncle' story. his son is the great violin player. V (Oh! I forget the name)

It's really all a romance! & they are so poor. brave little woman. good & proud.

I am going to leave a little musical at home. Friday week.

I think. just a few friends.
& she will sing - Could Mr. Lays come & make her acquaintance?

I think I should try & get her into touch with the Queen - I have friends 'at Court' Her sister-in-law & Queen Mary had the same Grandmother!

I love to think of Good - which is the peak Will of God gaining - & I am sure she would not be so poor only she is Good. I hope you keep well

Yrs sincerely

Catherine M. Shaw
