Dear Sir.

I return the papers you left with me this morning relating to Mr. Munang's matter, and also a typewritten letter which if you approve I would suggest should be copied out and sent on to him.
On re-reading the correspondence

Carefully this afternoon.

See no reason for altering my opinion & on the matter.

I have purposely sketched out as informal a letter as possible, so as not to put him on his guard, my object being of course to gradually throw the correspondence with him

(which will doubtless ensue) arrange to considerably curtail the specimen. At the same time I do not want him to think you have consulted a lawyer on the matter.

I am leaving the Fine Arts Society as arranged.

Believe me

Yours truly

P. A. Hargreaves Esq
