My dear Sir :- I must not forego giving myself the pleasure of putting in writing the very great gratitude I have for your kindness and consideration yesterday.
I shall always treasure our two meetings as long as I live as among the most valuable of my life. I send you under an other cover a small guide of Mallorca, the pictures in

which may induce you to come to us. I can assure you Mrs.
Chamberlain and I and many other admirers of your career and attainments will be all we can to make you stay worthily of you. Love
I send her to you.

Interviews are here.

I'll call for the guide some day before Wed., when I am leaving. That ventured to include some things about the underground which may serve as credentials.

With kindest regards to Mrs. Liff, you son and you cousin - in law
I am with the kindest respect. Frederick Chamberlain.
