Dear Mr. Lazlo:-
A million thanks
-and then some- as they say in the U.S.A. - for your extraordinarily kind note of the 5th. It will be a great honour, always to meet you and your family and a still greater distinction if I can deserve your friendship. At least, my hand will always be stretched out toward yours.
After thanks for the invitation for Monday at 7.30. I have not the time - to see anybody else except those at No. 3.

Be revivèd and all good fortune wait on you all always.

Most sincerely yours,
Frederick Chamberlain
