

20th April, 1925.

Dear Friend,

I think my wife has already sent a telephone message to you, asking you to give us the pleasure of your presence and dine with us on Friday, the 24th inst., at 7.45 at the Annual Dinner of the Anglo-Austrian Society at the Hyde Park Hotel, when Lord Haldane and others will speak. I think it will be rather interesting and besides yourself Mrs. Bowlby will be with us. We much hope that you will be free that evening.

As you suggested I have written to Harty and I will let you have his reply.

It will interest you to know that the Academy of Arts in Budapest are arranging a retrospective Exhibition of my work in Budapest, which flatters me very much and I hear that Harty will open the same on May 16th. I will tell you more about it when I see you. Also I would like to hear from you personally something more about Mr. Leipnik which would interest me very much.

Looking forward to hearing from you

Believe me,

Most cordially yours,
