

C/o Mrs Norman.

THE RED HOUSE, HORNTON STREET, W. 8.

Western 1064.

Dear Mr. de laszlo,

My friend, Miss kind-of. Hageby, was in such haste after the play the other night that I had no time to finish our conversation.

I wanted to tell you how enormously I admired your portrait of Appony, which I saw after you had left Geneva. It is a masterpiece of Character drawing!

Your mutual friend

Pauline Vanier, is, I hear, much better & shortly returning to Geneva if she has not already done so.

Yrs. Sincerely,
Ronald Armstrong
