18. 1. 1931

My dear Phillip: The firm is one in very high repute: Now as to your self ^{again} a now as to yourself: I was very sorry to see you looking so leedy: Wished you now I was as young as we were: You with your long experience ^{of new energy} in your work must go slow if you wish to enjoy health & happiness in your future years Whatever their length maybe: & believe me if you don't ^{take} care they won't be very long: I am so fond of you that I feel I must butt in & ^{talk} ~~talk~~ to you as though you were a brother: for goodness sake take a rest cut work ~~to~~ let the literary work: take a ^{solid} ~~total~~ 2 months off amusing yourself in the sun of Spain painting little bits & let the Dawishers run itself:

EXCISE

Unless you rest

look

Your work will take tired & weary: I never forget what a Leary artist in Edward Square (When we had a furnished house) said when you did that of Nancy: "Ah that's lovely: he has had a rest: when he is tired his work is not alive as this is: "You don't see it yourself otherwise do: so pack up so, there's a dear good fellow & go off with Leary: What a relief it will be to her! You can leave plenty of material behind for your book &

I've done work like that before & I will help

Miss Roberts to get it in order. No one will know

I've had a finger in the pie: It will be all yours:

Baldy I know is upset that you take a rest

Leary is yearning for you to do it: she knows not that I write: The best let it be announced that acting or medical advice you are resting your own affectionately & worriedly.
