Dear Mrs. Hunter,

I have just returned from the country and found your note. May I suggest for your visit next Friday, at 4.50, as I would like when you come to show you the portrait of Lord Carson, which will by then have dried and been varnished. I hope also on that day to see Lord Findlay and Mr. Holman Gregory and show them the picture.

Hoping this suggestion is convenient to you, and looking forward to greeting you and Mr. Hunter here,

Believe me,

Yours sincerely,
