

THE DEANERY, ST PAUL'S, E.C. 4.

Tuesday November 28 1933

Dear Mr. Lago de Louros,

I was very sorry not to say Goodbye to you on Saturday evening, but Lady Horner was kindly driving us home, and I did not like to keep her waiting. It was such a very great pleasure to see you again, and I feel I want to tell you how enormously impressed I am with your most remarkable portrait of Professor Tohu. I know him so intimately, and you have got all his wonderful character in his face. Your portrait lives: it is so intensely alive. I don't think I have ever been more impressed by any modern portrait that I have ever seen. How impertinent this is of me to write to a great master like yourself, but I love Professor John Haldane & your perfect interpretation of his noble character is supreme. Thank you.

Yours most sincerely

M. Catharine Hughes.
