SLOANE 4292.

28th Jan 1933

Dear Mr. & Lady

You asked me if I could find out what had happened to the copy of your Portrait of the Queen of Spain -

I made enquiries at Kensington Palace - Apparently it was removed from the wall of the Spanish Embassy when the Republican Ambassador took office and headed over to King George -

The Portrait is now in Buckingham Palace -

Queen Maud is over here for 10 days has and was at Kensington Palace today -

My wife and daughter wish to say kindly remembrance to you and are much looking forward to seeing your pictures. Yours Sincerely
C. Gordon Moore
