Dear Mr. de Laszlo,

In reply to the letter of the 13th. instant received from your secretary, I have pleasure in enclosing my cheque for £840-0-0.

The portrait of Mrs. Nettlefold arrived safely and is now hanging in the dining room, where I think it looks very well and I hope you will come and see it one of these days. The frame I thought most suitable.

Yours sincerely,

F. J. Nettlefold
