

10th December, 1929.

I much regret having kept you so long without a reply to your kind letter of November 23rd, but since attending your Concert I have been away from home, and most of my correspondence was awaiting my return to be dealt with.

May I ask you to give me the pleasure of a visit to my Studio one day when you are up in town, about 4 o'clock, when we could arrange about your sittings. Kindly let me know when I may expect you.

With kind regards,

Believe me,

Yours sincerely,

Mrs. Nettlefold,
