PRESIDENT KING TO VISIT SIERRA LEONE.

It is announced that His Excellency the Governor of Sierra Leone has received intimation of the intention of the President of Liberia, the Hon. C. D. B. King, to visit Sierra Leone about the third week in January, and will arrive here by H.M.S. Dublin, by permission of the British War Office. The President will remain about three days, during which he hopes to be able to visit the prisons, the schools, and other places in the colony. He will then proceed by rail as far as Pendembu, whence he will trek to the Liberian northern boundary and enter Liberian territory.

The present President of Liberia was educated at the Sierra Leone Grammar School, and the "Sierra Leone Weekly News" understands that the Principal and officers of the school contemplate a huge reception in his honour. As soon as arrangements are completed, the Sierra Leone Government will be informed.
