

9th July, 1925.

Dear Mr. Winchester,

I am anxious to know if there is any news of Sir Charles Markham, as up to now, I have heard nothing from him.

I hope this matter will be settled in a very careful way, as I hate to have complications and quarrels.

Believe me,

Yours sincerely,