Dear Mr. de Laszlo,

Many thanks for your letter, and I shall look forward very much to seeing you soon to talk over the matter of your next exhibition.

Regarding Sir Robert Gresley's account, this as I told you was for actual out of pocket expenses incurred by direct instructions from him. The items include the insurance on the two pictures, the carriage to Drake's Park, and the special lettering in gold of the titles on the portraits. We, however, will not proceed any further in the matter until we hear from you again.

With kind regards,
Yours sincerely,

H. Wallis
