

2nd August, 1924.

Dear Sirs,

In reply to your telephone message yesterday, I am directed by Mr. de Laszlo to say it will be quite convenient if you call for the picture on Wednesday morning next, for despatching to Paris with those of the Baroness de Rothschild and her son, which you have collected from the French Gallery.

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.

Messrs Knoedler & Co.,
15, Old Bond Street, W.