

31st July, 1924.

Messrs Knoedler & Co.,
15, Old Bond Street, W.

Dear Sirs,

As Mr. de Lasslo's exhibition at the French Gallery is being closed to-day, will you kindly make arrangements to have the portraits of the Baroness Robert de Rothschild and her son, collected, and return same to your Paris firm, as Mr. de Lasslo understood that the pictures were delivered to the French Gallery through your firm. At the same time he would be glad if you add to these two pictures a third which he has to finish in Paris this Autumn, and this picture he would like you to keep at your Paris firm until he is ready for it. He will bear any expense attached.

He looks forward to hearing from you.

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.
