

30th June, 1930.

Dear Sirs,

In regard to the list of enquiries concerning portraits enclosed in Mr. Winchester's letter of September 13th, Mr. de Lazzlo wishes me to inform you that he has just painted portraits of Mr. David Luke, of America, and of Lady Mathew. The honorarium for the former was a thousand guineas, and for the latter eight hundred guineas, and I am requested by Mr. de Lazzlo to forward you herewith cheque for £283.10.0. being 15% due to you thereon.

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.
