

30th June, 1931.

Dear Mr. ~~Whitaker~~,

All the pictures for England from my Paris Exhibition were delivered to my Studio yesterday by Messrs. Davies, Turner & Co. who again removed them for dispatch and delivery to their respective owners.

I should be grateful to hear whether the picture of the "Horses" has reached you in perfect condition, and I take this opportunity to extend to you again my best thanks for kindly allowing me to include it in the Exhibition, which was opened by the British Ambassador, Lord Tyrrell, and the Minister des Beaux Arts, and visited subsequently by President Doumergue just before his retirement from office.

Yours very truly,
