

KENSINGTON PALACE,
LONDON, W.8.
TEL. PARK 635.

Sept. 22 ~~1914~~

Dear Mr. de Laszlo,
I must write &
tell you how brisk I think it
of you to want to give me a wedding present. I am so touched at your charming thought
of doing a little
for my mother

95
As you well know
nothing could give me greater pleasure
than having a
portrait of my mother
done by you to have with me in my new house.

My sister will be coming over for the wedding so we will keep her portraits
here till she comes & thank you again
so much for your
charming & beautiful
thoughts.
Yours sincerely
Louise Clouet Bates
