

REFORM CLUB,

PALL MALL. S.W. 1.

10th Jan 1918

Dear Mr. Madrylo

You will see in today's Times that Lord Bessford made a most unfair and untrue
 attack upon your husband and my reply is kindly reported that his statements were untrue
 and that if he repeated them outside the House

he would leave to account for what he said -
of Silborne who came in Monday after conference very well.

But you had better
get the Hansard
report of yesterday's debate which will probably be published tomorrow, and then

you will be more fully what was said
I spoke to P. Bessford and told him he had been seriously misinformed
but he did not tell me
who his informant
was.

Yours sincerely

Sheffield
